

YO BRO SO DO TO NE DO Apple

👁 11 ✓ 0 ★ 1

Chapter 1 by Story Wars

I'm a Linux guy; Windows was never my thing honey
Apple seemed interesting, but required too much money

I have ideological problems with Apple too,
What with all the software and hardware lock-in they do.

But people are crazy about Apple, and I used to wonder why,
I had a dream: to own Apple products that I didn't have to buy.

A few months back my Brother gifted me an iPhone, bro!
And then at work I got the new Macbook Pro!!

Thus suddenly I was an Apple user,
Sure, some people called me a sore loser.

Allow me to share my early experiences,
Some accolades and some grievances.

I'll try to keep a neutral tone,
Shall focus on the Mac and not the iPhone.

Integration, integration, integration,
The attention to detail gives a wonderful sensation.

User experience is the key,
Excellent design is for all to see.

They've taken care of the enterprises,
Exchange support, Google integration — no surprises.

It's by far the best laptop I've ever used,
The hardware is slick, the software is smooth.
